Public Comment

1. Public Comments

Leon asked the Board to go to bid on the Anderson Avenue bridge at Keats and Vinton School Road culvert replacement.

The Board agreed by consensus to proceed with the bids on the Anderson Avenue bridge at Keats and Vinton School Road culvert replacement.

Wells discussed the availability of a low boy trailer and dozer available for rural fire to use in emergencies with Hobson.

Commission Comments

2. Commission Comments

Ford's Comments:

After Monday's meeting I met with EMS Director David Adams to discuss and get his thoughts on the current state of Riley County EMS, and I also toured the Ambulance Station on Claflin Avenue. Later Monday afternoon I met with the RCPD Law Board attorney Michael Gillespie to discuss and answer some questions and concerns dealing with the structure and makeup of both RCPD and the Law Board. Monday evening I attended the Kansas Livestock Association Banquet at Pottorf Hall....had the chance to sit and talk to several constituents from the Zeandale area, and even won a flag in their giveaway raffle.

Tuesday afternoon after work I met with a local resident who had some concerns and wanted to get some feedback from me to help address those moving forward.

Other than that I spent the rest of the week working and trying to stay warm.

Rodriguez's Comments:

Attended the annual Riley County livestock meeting and dinner on Monday evening.

Tuesday afternoon attended the ATA monthly meeting.

Continued to work the Flint Hills Regional Council project that I was assigned.

Wells' Comments:

Wells said he also attended the Livestock Association Annual Meeting.

Wells stated he has done a fair amount of work on the need for a dozer and trailer for rural fire.
